

Other Information

How to get there:

Acton Scott Historic Working Farm is signposted off the A49 at Marshbrook, 3 miles south of Church Stretton.

Friends of Shropshire Archives
and Shropshire Archaeological & Historical Society

The Acton Scott Heritage Project

A day of talks and walks exploring the work of the Acton Scott Heritage Project, a community archaeology and history project.

Acton Scott Historic Working Farm

Saturday 12 September 2009

10.00am – 4.00pm

£7 for members of the Friends and Archaeological Society
£12 for non-members

The Acton Scott Heritage Project is funded by the Your Heritage fund of the Heritage Lottery Fund and Shropshire Council.

This event has been organised in association with Shropshire Archives and Shropshire Council's Archaeology Service and Museum Service.

Shropshire Archives is funded by Shropshire Council and Telford & Wrekin Council.

HOW TO BOOK

Please complete this form and return it with an appropriate fee, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to:

Pat Kiernan, 11 Lime Tree Way, Wellington, Telford TF1 3PJ
Tel: 01952 252814

NAME: (Mr/Mrs/Miss/Ms)

ADDRESS:

.....

.....

.....

POSTCODE:

TELEPHONE:

I wish to reserve place/places for Acton Scott day,
Saturday 12 September 2009.

I/we are members of the Friends

I/we are members of the Archaeological Society

I enclose payment of £ (payable to FRIENDS OF SHROPSHIRE ARCHIVES).

Refreshments & lunch

- Tea or coffee in the morning and afternoon is included.
- Lunch is not provided (but the Farm Museum café will be open 12.00pm – 2.30pm).

PROGRAMME

Acton Scott Heritage Project

Saturday 12 September 2009

Acton Scott Historic Working Farm

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 10.00am | Registration and coffee |
| 10.10 | Welcome |
| 10.15 | Phil Scoggins - Introduction to the Acton Scott Heritage Project |
| 10.50 | Hugh Hannaford - Investigations at the Roman Villa Site |
| 11.25–11.40 | Coffee |
| 11.40 | Ian Dormor - Tree and Hedgerow Survey |
| 12.00–2.30 | Lunch
Guided walk
Visit Farm Museum |
| 2.30 | Visit to excavations |
| 3.15 | Nigel Nixon - Shropshire Museum Service: Recent Developments and Looking to the Future |
| 4.00pm | Close |